HARRY THAW IS STILL AT LARGE

Fugitive Reported to Have Been Seen in Several Places.

OFFICIALS IN DARK.

General Belief That Thaw is at Sea—Thunder Storm Puts Telephone Out of Commission.

New York, Aug. 18.—No clue to the whereabouts of Harry Kendall Thaw had been received up to 11 o'clock today by Dr.. Raymond F. C. Kieb, superintendent of Matteawan asylum, or by New York officials.

A heavy thunderstorm early today put the telephone wires at Matteawan asylum out of commission, but Dr. Kieb kept in touch with the authorities here by telegraph.

Believing the story that Thaw put to sea and that the yacht seen off South Norwalk, Conn., was the one in which he made his escape, the authorities today kept up a ceaseless wireless inquiry asking liner and coastwise vessels for information regarding a yacht with one yellow funnel and an unusually large cabin, the most striking features of the yacht seen at South Norwalk.

A bulletin was received from Pittsfield, Mass., today that Thaw left there early this morning, after staying at the Lenox Hotel, Lenox, Mass., last night. The police are in pursuit. A dozen other cities and towns have reported having seen Thaw. No particular credence is given to any of these reports and the madman is up to the present utterly lost.

Since District Attorney Charles S. Whitman and other officials unanimously agree that Thaw cannot be extradited and therefore is immune from arrest anywhere outside of the borders of the State of New York, the chief of police and sheriffs are puzzled to know what they should do with Thaw if they should catch him.

Despite the legal opinions that Thaw cannot be brought back to New York if found, the general alarm for his apprehension, issued yesterday by Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty as soon as Thaw's escape was telephoned from the asylum and sent broadcast to police departments all over the United States, had not been recinded today.

Those knowing Thaw best, expected him to make his whereabouts known today or within a few days, since it is evident that he was fully advised before hand that he would be safe once he got beyond the New York State line.

South Norwalk, Aug. 18.—Two men reported to the police today that they saw Harry Thaw an dthree men board a yacht in the harbor yesterday morning.

Danbury, Conn., Aug. 18.—Harry K. Thaw and his party stopped here yesterday, bought cigars at a local hotel and left about 10:30 o'clock. They gave no evidence of being in a hurry. Traveling salesmen recognized Thaw.

Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 18.—Harry Thaw stopped as "Mr. P. P. Lewis, New York," at the Lenox Hotel, Lenox, Mass., last night. The identification was made by the proprietor of the hotel, Richard A. Stanley. "Lewis" left without breakfact before 6 o'clock this morning in a large touring car, answering minutely the description of the car used by Thaw in his escape from the gate at Matteawan.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

With the eyes of a huge rattlesnake fascinating them so that they were held spellbound, while it crawled nearer and nearer, two little children of W. M. Miller, a merchant, of Smithfield, Pa., were saved from the reptile yesterday by their mother. The snake, holding the children as if enchanted, crept up several feet, coiled itself, and was ready to spring when Mrs. Miller appeared. She dragged her children away and called her husband, who killed the reptile. It measured more than 4 feet, and had 14 rattles.

The man who committed suicide in Atlanta, Ga., last Tuesday night by drinking carbolic acid on the street was identified as W. J. McMullen, a wealthy resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., who had been missing for some years. McMullen's second wife and five children were lost in the General Slocum disaster, and this is said to be the cause of McMullen's mind becoming unbalanced.

Diving into four feet of water from the end of a pier at the Standard Oil Works, South Clinton street, near Baltimore, John Grabowski, 11 years old, of 1206 South Elliwood Avenue, was held fast by the mud and drowned yesterday afternoon.

A family feud of long standing, culminated Saturday near Soble, Tennessee, in the killing of J. W. A. Collins, aged 51, and Willis Johnson, 55 years old. It is alleged that Johnson shot and killed Collins and that the latter's son, Fred shortly afterward killed Johnson. Young Collins was arrested. The elder Collins and Johnson are said to have been at enmity for years.

Much damage was done by the terrific rain and the accompanying lightning in Cumberland, Md., and vicinity yesterday. Streets became rivers and country roads were transformed into deep streams.

Engaged to twenty-five men, foiled in five elopements and twice married, is a record which Mrs. Gussie Mashburn, 17 years old, of La Grange, Ga., declares qualifies her as an expert.

WOMAN GROWING YOUNG AT 97.

Black Curly Hair Growing on Bald Head and New Teeth Showing.

Katchikan Alaska, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary Jaspers, who celebrated her 97th birthday July 24th has surprised her friends by growing a new head of hair.

For 50 years Mrs. Jasper's hair had been as white as snow. About a year ago it began to fall out, and in a little while she was bald. Now hair, thick, black and curly, is coming on and it promises to be a luxuriant growth.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Jaspers lost her last tooth. Since then she has worn false teeth . Now, with the growing of the new hair, she is cutting new teeth. Four front teeth already have appeared and she is now cutting two molars.

Mrs. Jaspers is the widow of a former mayor of Ketchikan and is in excellent health.

SUICIDE OF A LOVER.

Swain Takes Life When Gum and Candy Peace Offering Fail.

Franklin, Pa., Aug. 18.—Jilsed by a girl with whom he was infatuated, Lewis Parker, aged 24, a teamster, committed suicide on a farm Saturday night by shooting himself.

Two weeks ago Parker and Delilah Crawford had a quarrel and Parker did not go to the girl's home again until Saturday night. She refused to see him, and as he left he called out, "Good-bye, Delilah; you will never see me again." When he was 500 feet from the house he shot himself in the head and died several hours later.

In his pockets were found candy and chewing gum, indicating that he expected to patch up the lovers' quarrel.

AMERICANS MADE TO PAY TRIBUTE

Mexican Missionary Describes Conditions in Country.

SACKING OF A CITY.

Americans Made to Give up Horses—Discipline of Rebels Said to be Excellent.

New York, Aug. 18.—Description of the capture of Zitacuaro, Mexico, by the Mexican rebels and of the manner in which the rebel soldiers exact tribute from both Americans and natives in the cities and villages that they raid is furnished in a letter which was received this week by the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, 165 Fifth avenue.

The letter, dated July 25, tells of the attack on the federal forces by the rebels on July 1, and the skirmish that raged around the mission house while the missionary was up stairs with his wife and children hidden in the cellar.

The sacking of Zitacuaro by the "Coahuila Carbineers," as they call themselves, is pictured graphically.

"After the fighting had ceased," he says, "we opened our doors to show them that the house was occupied. The first thing the rebels did was to hunt for horses. Very soon a soldier came to me and said:

"I understand you have horses. If you were a Mexicon I would take them without askng,but since you are a foreigner, I want you to give them to me."

"I answered that we had horses and that I would go with him to where I told him he could take his choice, but I would ask him as a favor that he would use his influence to save us. the balance. He agreed. I got my head co-worker and we went with the rebel. They took our best horses for which we had paid $100, and left a small, dark ba yhorse in its place. I thought that we had saved our other animals, but within a few moments another man went into the stable and took the remainder, leaving in their place a small horse with a sore back."

The missionary says that for two days everything was quiet and the discipline of the rebel army was excellent.

KILLED WITH BEER BOTTLE.

Sister of Alexandrian Murdered by Husband.

George S. Nance was committed to jail without bond in Hamlet, N. C., Saturday, following the finding of a coroner's jury which held that his wife, Birdie Nance, who was murdered in a hotel at Hamlet, N. C., came to her death at the hands of her husband.

The police report that the woman was killed by a blow on the head from a beer bottle. Her clothing and the carpet on the floor of the hotel room in which the chime was committed were soaked with kerosene, and had been ignited, evidently in an attempt to conceal any clue to the identity of the murderer.

Smoke coming from the room led guests to believe that the hotel was on fire. It was this which led to the finding of the body.

Mrs. Robert N. Baker, residing at 613 Prince street, in this city, a sister of the murdered woman, left for Hamlet with her husband Saturday.

The police suspect that Nance is insane, basing their belief on a statement he has made and a report from Greenville, S C., that he was once an inmate of an institution there. According to information received by the police, Nance is reported to have stated that his wife had threatened to have him put into an asylum, and that she cried, "I'm as crazy as you are now and will stop at nothing." Then she choked him, Nance is reported to have said, and when he freed himself he struck her on the head with the bottle, later setting fire to her.

Mrs. Nance was about thirty years old and had been married eight years. She was formerly a Miss Nail, and was married in Alexandria. Her husband is about ten years her senior. The couple have made their home in Knoxville, Tenn., and had no children.

At the time of his arrest, it is reported, Nance had $563 in bills on his person, a $1,000 government bond and a slip showing a deposit of $1,000 to his credit in a bank in Macon, Ga. Nance says he is a bookkeeper. The dead woman was a traveling representative of a perfumery house.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Countess Tarnovska Hanged on Russian Express Train.

The Countess Tarnovska, who in 1910 was convicted in Venice of complicity in the murder of Count Kamarowsky and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, was found dead on a St. Petersburg-Kiev express train yesterday. She had been hanged. The police are investigating to determine whether it is a case of suicide or murder. The countess was pardoned last year.

The Countess Marie Tarnovska, a beautiful Russian woman, was charged and found guilty of having persuaded a jealous youth, Nikolas Naumoff, to go to Venice from Vienna and kill Count Kamarowsky in order that she might obtain $100,000 life insurance, the policy for which Kamaroksky had taken out in her name. The Countess, it was said, was engaged to marry Kamarowsky.

It was charged at the trial that the countess had a mania for making men love her and then turning them against one another. It was testified that she had repeatedly embraced Count Kamarowsky in the presence of young Naumoff and had shown Naumoff forged love letters in order to arouse his jealousy. The court fuond Naumoff guilty, but mentally unsound, and sentenced him to three years' imprisonment.

CONFUSION FROM DUAL GOVERNORS

Lieutenant Governor Glynn is Recognized by Prison Head.

TO STAND ON RIGHTS.

People Having Business With Executive Office Growing Tired of Present Conditions.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 18.—State Superintendent of Prisons, John B. Riley,intimate friend and appointee of Governor Sulzer, today recognized Lieut. Governor Martin H. Glynn as acting Governor of the State.

Riley, telegraphing from Plattsburgh, reported to Glynn the facts in connection with the escape of Harry K. Thaw from Matteawan. Shortly afterward, Dr. Kieb, superintendent, of Matteawan, called Glynn on the telephone with a similar report. Both officials simply related the already known facts in the case.

The next 48 hours will decide whether the confusion of a dual governor system with consequent indescribable confusion in the state's business, is to continue or whether there is to be a lull pending the impeachment trial of William Sulzer. The elected Governor and Lieutenant Governor Glynn, who claims to be acting governor under the constitution, were insistent that they would "stand on their rights,' 'but outsiders who have business for reuiring for its success knowledge of who really is governor under the constitution have already tired of present conditions.

It was expected that a taxpayers' action of some sort would be started which would get the Sulzer and Glynn qualifications before the court.

KILL A BLOWN-UP COMRADE.

Workmen With Air Hose Burst His Body by Pressure.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 18.—Franco Cutills, aged twenty years, employed by the Carpenter Steel Company, died under most distressing circumstances. Yesterday morning several fellow-workmen seized Cutills while he was at work. Two held him. While this was going on a third inserted an air hole in Custi's body and turned on the pressure. In a few moments the young man bloated like a balloon, his body looked as though it would explode and he became unconscious and died.

Coroner Wagner directed that an autopsy be held. This revealed the fact that the pressure of the air had burst the bowels, which resulted in death. Arrests have been ordered.

BULL RAMS HIM OVER FENCE.

Man in Dire Peril Draws Family, Who Share His Danger.

Doylestown, Pa., Aug. 18.—While he was driving cattle on a highway in Haycock township a ferocious bull in a field jumped a fence and attacked William H. Roudenbush, of Applebachvile, tossing him in the air like a football. Mr. Roudenbach was helpless; but his life was saved when the bull rammed him through a fence.

Mr. Roudenbush's son Edward appeared, but shared about the same fate as his father. Then Roudenbush's wife and daughter came to the rescue with pitchforks, but by that time the son had hold of a ring in the bull's nose, which enabled hm to hold the beast until help arrived. Mr. Roudenbush was carried home, wounded in many places on his body and head.

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

Shortly before 5 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a frame house on the east side of Henry street, between Duke and Wolfe. The whistles at the depot sounded an alarm and the fire brigade at the round house of the Southern Railway rushed to the scene. The fire was under control when the city department arrived. The damage was not serious. The house was occupied by a colored family, and the man of the house had prepared his breakfast and left for his work. He failed to turn off the heat from the stove and the fire resulted.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

Negro Destroys Furniture and Breaks Open Door.

William Levell, colored, an occasional patron of the Police Court, was before the bar again this morning to answer the charge of breaking open the door of a house. Several months ago Levell became angry at his wife and after destroying about sixty dollars' worth of furniture left the city. He returned unexpectedly Saturday night and started in quest of his wife. He located her at the house of a colored man of whom she had rented a room. Being refused admission, he kicked in the door and was arrested. A fine of ten dollars was imposed.

PROPOSED CHANGE OF CHURCH NAME

Episcopal Clergymen Favor Debate to End the Controversy.

DISPUTES LESS BITTER.

Question to Come up Before Convention in Several Forms—Wants to Drop Word "Protestant."

New York, Aug. 18.—The controversy in the Episcopal Church over a change of its name, which has threatened to split the denomination is said to be growing less bitter through the counsel of some of the most eminent clergymen in the church, who are striving to avoid if possible, another protracted controversy on the subject at the meeting of the general convention in this city, October.

Bishop Greer, Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts; Bishop Anderson, of Chicago; Bishop Spalding, of Utah; the Rev. William T. Manning, of this city; the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins, of Chicago, and some others, have been campaigning toward that end recently it is said, by pointing out to heated partisans, sometimes in public prints and oftener in private letters, that there are more important things to engage the attention of the October meeting. Their words have had the effect of stilling some of the partisan storms.

The question of the change of name will probably come before the convention in half a dozen forms, but it is bound to be presented in at least one instance, for the Diocese of California has framed a memorial for the convention asking it to authorize the dropping of the word "Protestant" from the title page of the prayer book. Probably, in any event, the convention will be called upon to define the word "Protestant" authoritatively as to its meaning as applied to the Episcopal Chruch.

A counter proposition, which is pleasing to the High Church party, has been made recently that the word "Catholic" shall be defined an dofficially adopted, setting forth the Episcopal's Church's understanding of it.

ANCIENT MASONIC APRON.

Handed Down Through Five Generations to Present Possessor.

New Orleans, Aug. 18.—A Masonic apron more than 100 years old is in the possession of Frank Williams, district manage of an Auotmobile Company.

According to Mr. Williams, the apron was originally the property of his great-great grand-father, Jesse Kent, of Yorkshire, England, and has been handed down to five generations of his family.

The apron is of silk, was made in 1799, and contains all the symbols significant in Masonry. According to Mr. Williams is is the only one of its kind in existence. At the time the apron was made there was no difference between the Royal Arch, Seventh Degree, and the Lilac Lodge, which is the Third Degree, since which the lodges have been separated.

Mr. Williams has refused requests from the State Museum of Georgia for the loan of the apron.

ELKS' HOME IN VIRGINIA

Alexandria Members Indignant Over Published Report Concerning Institution

Alexandria Elks, who were present at the meeting of the grand lodge of Elks held in Rochester, New York, recently and who took an active part in the fight to retain the Elks' National Home at Bedford Springs, this state, are indignant at the reports which were published yesterday in a Washington newspaper of the alleged dissatisfaction of the members of the order who are taken care of in the home and believe that a new campaign to prejudice the propositon to erect new buildings at Bedford City to cost $250,000 has been started.

The Virginia Elks before going to Rochester secured the fullest reports of the conditions of the institution which is maintained for old and feeble members of the order. Statements were secured from more than 90 per cent of the inmates declaring their satisfaction with conditions at Bedford city and expressing the hope that the home would remain in its present location. There was some dissatisfaction expressed because the buildings were small and not modern in all particulars but this would be remedied by the construction of the proposed additions to the plant. As a result of these statements the grand lodge adhered to its original plan of erecting the new buildings and plans have been prepared for the new structures which will be started shortly. Temporary arrangements have been made for those at present in the home while the improvements are being made.

The fight against the Bedford city home is largely due to the belief of many members of the order of Elks that the National Home should be in a more central location.

WILL SERVE SIX MONTHS.

Negro Man Charged With Brutal Attack Upon Woman.

Andrew Jackson, colored, was before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of a cruel assault upon Lottie Ford, also colored. The attack was made several days ago, and the woman was unable to appear until this morning.

According to her statement, Jackson came to her home under the influence of liquor, and when she remonstrated with him concerning his practice of drinking himself drunk, he became incensed. He picked up a broomstick and struck her on the head, and when she attempted to evade the stick by running, he struck her a violent blow on the right side near the abdomen. The condition of the woman rendered such a blow extremely dangerous, and she was confined to her bed until this morning. In her statement she suggested that she did not want the full penalty of the law enforced.

Jackson in his answer to the charge denied that he had attacked the woman. He was sentenced to serve six months on the road.

FINED FOR UNMUZZLED DOGS.

Officer Campbell brought an old colored woman before the police Court this morning to answer the charge of harboring unmuzzled dogs. The officer stated that one of the animals was about to bite him. The woman gave her name as Delia Scott, and she gave the same stereotyped answer to the charge made against her—she had muzzles, but the dogs broke them. When asked if she had paid the taxes on the curs, she acknowledged that she had procured but one tag. A fine of five dollars was imposed.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

CHALONER DELIGHTED.

Glad That Thaw Escaped; Says He Was Unfairly Tried.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 1.—John Armstrong Chaloner, of "Merry Mills," Cobham, Va., came to Richmond last night to deliver his fortnightly address in which he is spreading information relative to the inadequacy of the lunacy laws of the United States. Mr. Chaloner who is insane in New York, and declared sane by courts in Virginia, was delighted with the news that Harry K. Thaw had escaped from Matteawan.

Mr. Chaloner, who is regarded as an expert on lunacy laws, declared that Thaw was as sane today as any man in the world.

"Thaw was undoubtedly insane when he shot Stanford White," said Mr. Chaloner, "but only during that moment. Never since, either during the trial or since his incarceration, has a single act been that of a madman."

Mr. Chaloner arraigned the courts of New York and said Thaw had never been given a fair trial.

"I have watched the case from its inception and studied every angle of the case, and am firm in the belief that Thaw has never received fair treatment. Under the law of the U. S. he is entitled to a trial by jury, but Thaw has always been tried by alienists or by a judge sitting alone.

"I am not a friend of Thaw nor the idle rich class which he represents, but speaking as a lawyer and an authority on lunacy, I say to the world that Harry Thaw is today as sane as any man. I speak from a knowledge born of walking in the wards in Bloomingdale for four years.

"I charge," said Mr. Chaloner, 'that Judge Keogh of the New York State Supreme Court, who presided when Thaw's attorneys made their last appeal for a retrial through habeas corpus proceedings had no right to sit on the bench at the hearing. for Judge Keogh is practically the brother-in-law of Stanford White."

TRUCK SHIPMENTS $2,300,000

Money is Plentiful on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Onancock, Va., Aug. 18.—There never was as much money on the Eastern Shore as at present. The Eastern Shore of Virginia Produce Exchange has already done a business of $2,300,000, with the sweet potatoes and corn crops stil unharvested. The outlook for sweets is excellent owing to the scarcity of fruit.

Restores Water Supply.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 18.—After being without water for nearly two days in a greater portion of the city, the trouble being occasioned by a break in the gravity main 21 miles from the city, the supply was restored yesterday evening and no further trouble is now anticipated.

Yesterday the city delivered water in residential sections with big water wagons, while residents drew their drinking supply from suburban springs and wells. Fortunately there has been no fire since the trouble occurred.

Law And Order League.

Onancock, Va., Aug. 18—A Law and Order League has been organized at Onely, with 54 members. Mr. John Kellam was elected president and W. F. White secretary. The object of the league is to break up the illicit sale of whisky and also of guns and pistols B. T. Parkes, L. J. Savage and Capt. Luther Boggs were appointed a committee to examine the records of the railroad offices from time to time, to fined to whom whisky has been consigned. R. C. Evans, W. W. Parkes and T. M. Hutchinson were appointed to act as a reference committee. They are to appoint six men who will work sub rosa, looking to general disorders. Parksley and Keller have already organized similar leagues.

EDITOR ATTACKED.

Fist Fight on Street as Result of Charges in Newspaper.

Radford, Va., Aug. 18.—Wise Worrell, editor of the Radford Record and John Noell, of Richmond, son of R. J. Noell, of Radford, engaged in a fist fight on the streets here a day or two ago. In the encounter no one was seriously injured, there being no damage done beyond a few slight bruises. Mr. Worrell, who was the larger of the two, had little trouble in taking care of himself when struck by young Noell.

The trouble grew out of serious charges made in the columns of the Radford Record over the signature of Wise Worrell, its editor, seriously reflecting on the character of R. J. Noell, treasurer of the Radford Normal School and City Councilman, and the assertion by the latter in his answer to the attack that the Record was a "trashy, libellous and irresponsible publication." Following this reference to his paper Editor Worrell replied with a long article, making conspiracy charges against Mr. Noell and demanding that Governor Mann investigate them. This article nearly resulted in an encounter between the two men when they met on Wednesday night, Mr. Noell denouncing it as absolutely false. At the time the lie was passed Mr. Worrell asserts that his opponent had his hand in his pocket as if on a gun, and this prevented him from resenting it. However, he sent Mr. Noell a letter demanding that he meet and fight without arms, on the penalty of being branded as a coward if he refused. This letter Mr. Noell refused to receive.

SUCCUMBS TO INJURIES.

W. B. Willis, Aged Farmer, Was Hit By A Train Last Month.

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 18.—W. Byrd Willis, aged 77 years, a prominent farmer of Orange county, died last Saturday night at the Martha Jefferson Hospital, this city.

Mr. Willis was struck by a train and badly injured on July 6. Accompanied by his niece, Miss Lucy Richardson, he started to cross the tracks south of Orange, on his way to church. Southern passenger train No. 9 suddenly ran upon them, striking the rear wheel of the buggy and throwing Mr. Willis violently to the ground. He was placed in the baggage car of the train and rushed to this city, where it was found, upon examination, that his spine was injured.

Suicide in Suffolk.

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 18.—J. J. Griffin, who recently moved here from the county, committed suicide Saturday by drinking laudanum. He purchased the drug and took it early in the morning, going to his home without revealing his deed to his family. Unable to arouse him from a deep sleep into which he sank, his wife summoned Dr. J. L. Rawls, but his efforts to revive the man were futile. No motive is assigned for his act other than despondency at being unable to obtain work.

KILLED PLAYING "INDIAN."

Father And Mother Were Absent From Home And Children Got Gun.

Independence, Va., Aug. 18.—A distressing accident happened at the home of Luss Shumate, west of town a few days ago, when the youngest child of the family was shot and instantly killed by an older brother.

The father was absent in West Virginia at work, and the mother was out assisting a neighbor at work, leaving seven little children in the home. Some of the neighbors' children had gone over for a little play. Becoming tired of games, they began looking for new amusement, when one spied a gun hanging over the door. Mounting a chair, it was soon brought down for inspection, and it was decided to "play Indian." The army lined up, the baby being placed all the head. Each had taken his turn in falling. Then it was time to begin at the head, and shoot from the other side. This time the big "pale face" pulled the trigger, the gun fired, striking the little tot (who was the most joyous of the pay Indians) full in the mouth, almost tearing away the upper portion of the face and head.

Girls Chase Officer.

Richmond, Aug. 18.—Probation Officer J. W. Whealton was chased Saturday from the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls by thirty of the unruly inmates, one of whom held a double-barrel shotgun after he had gone there to return Marie McNemar, who had escaped.

Although he drew his revolver and fired twice over the heads of the girls who were charging down upon him, this act did not have the effect of awing them, but merely seemed to further incense them, and they increased their speed in running toward him.

"Fearing that I might injure some of the girls, I thought the best thing to do woud be to take to my heels," Whealton said. "I ran down the road about 300 yards and into the woods. I sat down by a branch and waited until the girls had passed. Then I hastened to the home of Dr. C. H. Rudd, near Bon Air, and telephoned to police headquarters for help."

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

FORMER SLAVES ENTERTAINED.

Probably the most unique reunion ever held in the world, took place in Rockingham, N. C., a few days ago. It was a gathering of former slaves of Rockingham and Richmond counties, North Carolina. A sumptuous dinner was served by the masters and mistresses who, in other days the faithful darkies loved and served.

Four hundred or more, most of them with hair grown white and many walking with feeble steps, appeared in a parade through the town's principal streets.

Several of the former slaves made short talks, and songs were sung after the inimitable fashion of the old darkeys.

After the exercises the former slaves formed a line in front of the court house and marched to the ground of the colored graded schools. Here two long tables stood bearing all that goes to make a sumptuous dinner, such as barbecued beef, boiled ham, fried chicken, cakes, pies, custards and numerous other delicacies. After dinner, watermelons, the choicest obtainable, were served, making the dinner a feast.

The relations between masters and servants in ante war times was far different from those described in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and other imaginings which appeared in the fifties. After the close of the war, and at a time when many manumitted slaves had taken up their residence in Alexandria, their former masters occasionally visited this city on business or pleasure. The latter often sought the homes of their former slaves and were their guests. Their hosts were ever ready to do all possible on such occasions. That spirit of friendliness is still in evidence when white people of the South and their former slaves meet.

HARRY THAW AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT.

The papers today contain flaring headlines announcing the escape from Matteawan Asylum, in true Jack Sheppard fashion, of Harry Thaw, who murdered Stanford White, in Madison Sqare Garden, New York, several years ago.

His escape was dramatic, the warden having been knocked down and a waiting automobie being on hand, Thaw was soon being wafted in the direction of the Canadian border.

His wife is being guarded by detectives, she fearing her husband is bent on murdering her.

People have long since grown tired of the Thaw case, and it is unfortunate that he has again sprung into prominence. His history is a foul blot upon the country and the society from which he emanated. Born with a silver spoon in his mouth, his idea of life was akin to that of others who are brought into this world with more money than brains.

He was ignorant of the true mission of life, knew nothing of the trials of the great majority whose lot it is to bear the burdens of life. He had but one ideal—the Count of Monte Christo and his motto was dum vivimus vivamus—"whilst we live let us live."

The money at his disposal enabled him to procure the best of everything, and to be in possession of the prettiest woman (even were she a rose without fragrance) was a great desideratum. He gained his purpose, but after having wedded the siren his matrimonial felicities soon became as the apples of Sodom.

An earlier chapter in his wife's history made him realize that the trail of the serpent is on everything, and the fact that a man was living and making himself prominent who had figured in the early career of his betterhalf, was a bitter pill. The object of his wrath was a man like himself, but he could not measure purses with the youthful benedict, and the scion of a millionaire was haunted with his presence wherever he went. In order to relieve himself of the terrible apparition, he finally shot him down in a public resort.

The history which followed is familiar to all. The case can be summed up in a few words—his unlimited resources saved him from the electric chair. He is now like his great prototype, a fugitive and a vagabond upon the earth with human blood upon his hands.

BEES CHASE GIRL BATHERS.

Drive Them From Their Camp Until Farmer Comes to Rescue.

Spokane, Wash. Aug. 18.—While hal fa doen Spokane girls who have a camp at Newman Lake, were in bathing recently, a swarm of bees took possession of the tent where the girls had left their clothes, and compelled the bathers to spend the greater part of the afternoon in the water.

The bees, looking for a new home, took up their abode in an old cooking stove in the tente and proceeded to make themselves at home. They refuse dto allow the girls to enter the tent, so the fair campers had to be satisfied for the time being with the scant apparel of bathers.

Finally a farmer living in the neighborhood was attracted by the plight of the girls and volunteered to remove the bees, paying the girls $5 for the bees and the old stove.

At the same time the sixty-fifth session of the Virginia Valley Central Christian Conference, which has been meeting here since Thursday adjourned to meet August 20 in Antioch Church, near Harrisonburg, Va. Rev. W. T. Walters was re-elected president and also chosen to make the annaual address. A committee was appointed to frame a constitution for the conference.. All reports showed large increases in membrship and offerings.

BOARDER ATTACKS HOST.

Landlady and Husband Sen to Hospital For Dunning.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 18.—As the result of a dispute over a board bill, a man and his wife are in the hospital with fractured skulls and the third man in jail awaiting the outcome of their injuries. Lizzie Wessolo, 29 years old, and Onerfew Wassolo, 32 years old, who conduct a boarding house at No. 33 South Front street, are in the Pennsylvania Hospital in a serious condition. William Gehesky, a boarder at the Wassolo house, is being held by the police of the Second District.

Mrs. Wassolo is said to have approached her boarder last night on the question of his bill. A dispute arose as to its amount, and in the quarrel that resulted she was struck on thehead by a water pitcher. Wassolo came to her rescue and a free-for-all fight resulted. The police were called in and, after arresting Ghesky, removed the injured man and woman to the hospital.

The Ketoctin Baptist Association held a convention in Big Spring Church, Page count, Va.

CHILD LOST IN SEWER.

Mother Falls Exhausted After Long Run in Effort to Find Son.

New York, Aug. 18.—Four-year-old Leo Petrelecicz fell from a rowboat into French Pond creek, near Jamaica bay late Friday and a few minutes later the incoming tide swept him up into a big sewer far under the city, where he was lost.

A throng of people watched until late last night the spectacular efforts of various city departments to get the body. Fish nets were placed at the outlet of the sewer and a battery of searchlights was played upon scene, but to no avail.

The sewer stretches cross the meadows a mile and a half and is almost level, so that the tide waters really extend up the entire distance. If the receding tide does not carry the body out, men will enter the sewer to search for it.

Mrs. Mary Petrelecicz, mother of the boy, when she was informed of the accident at her home, a mile and a half distant, ran the entire way to the spot, where she dropped from exhaustion and is in a serious condition.

CRAZED BY LOSS OF LEG.

War Veteran Becomes Violent on Reaching Hospital.

Baltimore, Aug. 18.—Suffering from a mental disturbance, to which he has been frequently subject since losing a leg during the Spanish-American War, John A. Vanhorn, of Phoebus, Va., who was brought to the Henry Phipps Psychiatric Clinic by his wife and physician yesterday morning, became violent as he was about to be placed in a room in the institution and fought off his attendants. He ran through the place, overturning and breaking the furniture, attacked his wife and a doctor and then escaped, running to Wolfe and Jefferson streets before he was arrested by Sergeant Ruhl and Patrolman Rever, of the northeastern district. In his efforts to subdue the man, Sergeant Ruhl received an ugly cut from a spike in the man's hands which he had wrenched from the paling surrounding the hospital grounds. Shackled, Vanborn was taken to the Northeastern Police station and later to the Sheppard-Pratt Hospital.

SHOOTS AND KILLS WIFE.

John Jamerson, of West Lynchburg, Caught Trying to Escape.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 18. — John Jamerson ,aged about 37, yesterday afternoon shot and killed his wife, Ossie, at their home in West Lynchburg. Jamerson was arrested and lodged in jail by the city authorities.

According to neighbors Jamerson and his wife quarreled and some time before the tragedy he is said to have threatened to kill her. At 2 o'clock the woman was seen to rush from the house, her husband following her. She attempted to run into the next dwelling but was shot in the neck as she entered the door. The husband attempted to escape but was captured a short distance away. Mrs. Jamerson died a few minutes after the shooting.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Banker And His Family Cut and Bruised.

Culpeper, Va., Aug. 18.—While returning from Culpeper to their home in the country a few nights ago, Chas Forbes, the president of the Culpeper National Bank, with his wife son and daughter, who were in the automobile with him, had a narrow escape from death when two runaway horses dashed into the machine in which they were riding. The accident occurred on a hill near the horse show grounds. A four-horse wagon, containing a party of young people who were returning from a moonlight hay ride, was descending the hill when the two lead horses, freed from the wagon, became frightened and raced maly down the hill, which the Forbes automobile was ascending. All of the occupants of the car were cut and bruised, and one of the horses fearfully mutilated.

Court Clerks to Meet.

WOMAN TAKES COFFIN ON TRIP

Chilean Matron Sails From New York After a Vain Search of Health.

New York, Aug. 18—Carrying with her her own coffin and having made every preparation in case she dies en route, Mrs. Paul de Diaz, wife of a wealthy merchant of Valpariaso Chile, who has suffered from a tumor for some time, sailed in an effort to reach home before death overtakes her.

Mrs. de Diaz came here two months ago to consult specialists, but her case has been given up as hopeless by the best medical authorities of the country. She is about 50 years old.

Her condition became so alarming that when she expressed the intention of starting for home her physicians advised against the journey. She was insistent, however, saying that if she must die she preferred to do so in her own land. She was accompanied on the ship by a nurse and her own physician.

The party has a suit de luxe, in one of the rooms, where it has been placed upon her express direction stands a large silver mounted mahogany coffin of the finest workmanship in which the woman has ordered that her body be placed if she dies before land is reached.

DAUGHTERS' AVENGER FREED

Jury Exonerates Father Who Killed Man When Acquitted.

Chicago, Apg. 18.—An enraged father who took the law into his own hands and killed the man the courts had acquitted of the charge of attacking his 13-year-old daughter was exonerated Friday by a coroner's jury.

The verdict said that Edward J. Duprey was "laboring under a great mental strain on account of injury believed done to his daughters by the deceased" when he shot and killed Henry Gronimus, a photographer.

Duprey was released from custody. His two daughters, one 11 and the other 13 year old, were the only witnesses before the coroner's jury. They testified that they had been attacked by Gronimus in his studio.

Duprey, a tailor, killed Gronimus in front of his home just after he had been freed of the charge of assaulting the elder daughter, Stella. After the shooting Duprey disappeared, but gave himself up to the police.

"I knew thay couldn't do anything to you, papa,' 'exclaimed the older girl as she embraced her father after the announcement of the verdict.

Labor War in North Dakota Assuming Alarming Proportions.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 16.—The labor war in Minot has gained such proportions that officials are discussing the advisability of appealing to the Governor for State troops. One thousand more Industrial Workers of the World are reported to be on their way to this city to aid in the battle for free speech.

The determination of citizens to prevent street speaking was evidenced Wednesday night when a mob attacked Industrial Workers who were holding a meeting.

The Industrial Workers retaliated and scenes of disorder followed. Police and deputies forced their way through the mob, striking right and left.

Many persons were severely clubbed. The disturbance continued unabated until twenty-seven of the Industrial Workers had been arrested.

Fearing a jail delivery would be attempted, officers armed with rifles patrolled the tops of the jails and adjacent buildings throughout the night.

The prisoners, now numbering 139, howled most of the night and the din could be heard for blocks.

According to the leaders of the Industrial Workers, the battle will be resumed upon the arrival of reinforcements. They declare they will exert every resource to gain their right to free speech.

Authorities are equally vehement in their declarations that order shall be preserved even at the cost of life.

Farmers are becoming interested in the war to the extent of refusing to hire men who are affiliated with the organization.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriola, Pa., that is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. It is one of the most successful preparations that has been discovered. Thousands have testified to its value. For sale by all dealers.

SLIT SKIRT SAVES GIRL.

Overboard in Hobble, She Makes Slit Larger And Swims Ashore.

New Rochelle, Aug. 18.—A pretty young woman about 20 years old who wore a thin lavender silk hobble dress with the skirt slit some distance toward the knee, a white silk petticoat, lavender silk stockings, white kid pumps and a large white lace hat and who said she was Miss Loretta Mandeville, of Franklin avenue, The Bronx saved herself from drowning in Long Island Sound near Davenport Neck, a few days ago when the canoe in which she was paddling upset.

The youth who was with her and who refused to give his name had difficulty in keeping afloat until help came. The girl, finding she could not swim in her hobble skirt, reached down and tore it from the slit up to the waist. Then she struck out for Glen Island.

She waved her hand at a launch that rescued the man and swam with a rapid overhand stroke. When she reached the island she pinned the rent in her skirt and started for the home of a friend in New Rochelle without waiting for her escort.
